Visit to Titanic Belfast

The brand new Titanic Belfast® is a "must see" visit in any tour of Belfast and Northern Ireland. It is located in the heart of Belfast, right beside the historic site of this world-famous ship's construction. Housed in an iconic, 6-floor building, this state-of-the-art visitor experience tells the story of the Titanic, from her conception in Belfast in the early 1900s, through her construction and launch, to her famous maiden voyage and tragic end.

The adventure begins the moment you walk through the door and into the building's giant atrium surrounded by the four 'ship's hull' shaped wings which house the Titanic Experience. As you journey through the nine large galleries of this state-of-the-art interactive exhibition, you will uncover the true story of the Titanic.

Enjoy some time free in the city in the afternoon

Day 4: Thursday, August 27th, 2026 – To Dublin

Depart for Dublin & visit Brehon Brewhouse en route

Visit Brehon Brewhouse, Inniskeen, Carrickmacross, Co Monaghan

Family run and operated, this authentic experience is located in the rolling countryside of County Monaghan. Located on a working dairy farm, visitors get a full history of the area. The farm and brewery are located just outside "The Pale" and it got its name from the ancient Brehon laws of Ireland which lent much patronage to ancient brewing. Enjoy a full tour of the brewery - feeling, tasting and handling the raw ingredients. You can hand label your very own personalized bottle of beer. Follow this with a visit to the Tasting Room, the original farmhouse of the owner Seamus' family. The farmhouse is very well preserved and you will enjoy tasting some of the delicious award-winning brews at the traditional style bar.
