Visit to Titanic Belfast

The brand new Titanic Belfast® is a "must see" visit in any tour of Belfast and Northern Ireland. It is located in the heart of Belfast, right beside the historic site of this world-famous ship's construction. Housed in an iconic, 6-floor building, this state-of-the-art visitor experience tells the story of the Titanic, from her conception in Belfast in the early 1900s, through her construction and launch, to her famous maiden voyage and tragic end.

The adventure begins the moment you walk through the door and into the building's giant atrium surrounded by the four 'ship's hull' shaped wings which house the Titanic Experience. As you journey through the nine large galleries of this state-of-the-art interactive exhibition, you will uncover the true story of the Titanic.

Enjoy some time free in the city in the afternoon

Day 6: Sunday, August 30th, 2026 – Birr Castle and Galway

This morning depart from Dublin for the West coast of Ireland

Visit to Birr Castle Gardens

Birr Castle Demesne is an estate of 50 acres of parkland in the Midlands town of Birr. It is home to Birr Castle and its magnificent Formal Gardens, the Historic Science Centre and the Great Telescope built in the 1840's. Ireland's Historic Science Centre in the old stable block features the many pioneering achievements of the Parsons family and of other great Irish scientists in the fields of astronomy, photography, engineering and horticulture. In the grounds of the Estate you will discover the Great Telescope built by the third Earl of Rosse in the 1840's which was the largest in the world for 70 years. Birr Castle Demesne also hosts the Formal Garden and recently restored River Garden, a parkland with thousands of rare trees and plants collected from all over the world, as well as rivers, a lake and waterfalls. The neo-gothic Castle is the private family home of the Parsons family and is not open to the public.

Arrive into Galway during the afternoon

Day 7: Monday, August 31st, 2026 – Burren and Cliffs of Moher

Today enjoy a morning tour of the Burren region with a stop at the Cliffs of Moher and the Atlantic Edge Visitor Centre.

Situated on the Atlantic Ocean and bordering the Burren Area, the Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most spectacular sights. Standing 230 metres above the ground at their highest point and 8km long, the Cliffs boast one of the most amazing views in Ireland. The cliffs reach their highest point just north of O' Brien's Tower.

The Burren is a strange and unique region in Europe. "Burren" means "large stones. Often described as lunar, the Burren is a high plateau of porous limestone situated in Northern Clare between Ballyvaughan and Kilfenora. The rocks hide many caves like Ailwee, as well as "Turloughs", an interesting phenomenon which transforms lakes into fields during the summer.
