Day 3: Thursday, August 27th, 2026 – Blarney and Dublin

Depart Cork and travel to Ireland's capital, Dublin city. Stop along the route to visit Blarney Castle

Built in 1446, Blarney Castle is famous for its Blarney stone - The Stone of Eloquence, which is traditionally believed, to have the power to bestow the gift of eloquence on all those who kiss it. Many legends tell the story of the Stone, but why not kiss it and find out the truth behind the legend. The gardens at the castle make the visit all the more worthwhile.

Stop at Blarney Woollen Mills

In 1976 Chris Kelleher, himself a mill worker, bought the old mill property. Within a short period of time Chris and his family transformed the mill into what is perhaps the largest quality craft shop in Ireland. Guests can buy Waterford Crystal here also.

Day 6: Sunday, August 30th, 2026 – Birr Castle and Galway

This morning depart from Dublin for the West coast of Ireland

Visit to Birr Castle Gardens

Birr Castle Demesne is an estate of 50 acres of parkland in the Midlands town of Birr. It is home to Birr Castle and its magnificent Formal Gardens, the Historic Science Centre and the Great Telescope built in the 1840's. Ireland's Historic Science Centre in the old stable block features the many pioneering achievements of the Parsons family and of other great Irish scientists in the fields of astronomy, photography, engineering and horticulture. In the grounds of the Estate you will discover the Great Telescope built by the third Earl of Rosse in the 1840's which was the largest in the world for 70 years. Birr Castle Demesne also hosts the Formal Garden and recently restored River Garden, a parkland with thousands of rare trees and plants collected from all over the world, as well as rivers, a lake and waterfalls. The neo-gothic Castle is the private family home of the Parsons family and is not open to the public.

Arrive into Galway during the afternoon

Day 7: Monday, August 31st, 2026 – Burren and Cliffs of Moher

Today enjoy a morning tour of the Burren region with a stop at the Cliffs of Moher and the Atlantic Edge Visitor Centre.

Situated on the Atlantic Ocean and bordering the Burren Area, the Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most spectacular sights. Standing 230 metres above the ground at their highest point and 8km long, the Cliffs boast one of the most amazing views in Ireland. The cliffs reach their highest point just north of O' Brien's Tower.

The Burren is a strange and unique region in Europe. "Burren" means "large stones. Often described as lunar, the Burren is a high plateau of porous limestone situated in Northern Clare between Ballyvaughan and Kilfenora. The rocks hide many caves like Ailwee, as well as "Turloughs", an interesting phenomenon which transforms lakes into fields during the summer.
