Day 2: Tuesday, August 25th, 2026 – Half day Burren and Cliffs of Moher

Travel southwards into County Clare for a visit to the Cliffs of Moher and the Atlantic Edge Visitor Centre.

Situated on the Atlantic Ocean and bordering the Burren Area, the Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most spectacular sights. Standing 230 meters above the ground at their highest point and 8km long, the Cliffs boast one of the most amazing views in Ireland.

Travel through part of the Burren Region

The Burren is a strange and unique region in Europe. "Burren" means "large stones". In fact its name describes this impressive scenery perfectly well. The rocks hide many caves like Ailwee, as well as "Turloughs", an interesting phenomenon which transforms lakes into fields during the summer. You will also discover the testimonies of its rich history thanks to countless castles and monastic ruins.

Day 4: Thursday, August 27th, 2026 – To Dublin

Today depart Galway and travel to Ireland's capital, Dublin city with a stop en route

Visit Kilbeggan Distillery

In the heart of Ireland, just over 1 hour from Dublin lies the town of Kilbeggan, home to the world's oldest distillery, established in 1757. It is the quintessential Irish whiskey distillery - whitewashed walls, weathered slate roof, brick chimney stack, creaking timber water wheel, even regular ghost sightings. This is no mere "visitor centre" but a real working distillery run by a team of young enthusiastic craftspeople (and a few wise old heads too), skilled in the traditional ways of making Irish whiskey.

Continue to Dublin

In the evening attend the Welcome Party!
