Today enjoy a tour of the Connemara Region

Connemara is a land of lakes, rivers, bogs and mountains. A land of small villages where Gaelic is still the spoken language and where little has changed since the beginning of time. It is without a doubt the wildest and the most romantic part of Ireland. Connemara is a vast peninsula bordered by the arid and rocky coastline of Galway Bay in the south ~ a land characterised for its stone walls and thatched cottages.

Visit to Kylemore Abbey and Walled Gardens. Set in a dramatic landscape and originally built as a castle in 1867 as a romantic gift, Kylemore is steeped in history and tales of tragedy and romance, engineering initiatives, model farms, royal visits, spirituality and education. Home to Ireland's only Benedictine community of nuns since 1920, this 1000 acre estate has much to offer.

Experience the Victorian atmosphere of the restored rooms of the Abbey, miniature Gothic Church and Head Gardener's House. There are many nature trails, woodland and lakeshore walks which are waiting to be discovered. Explore the magical 6 acre Victorian walled garden where only Victorian varieties of flowers and vegetables are grown. The tea house by the walled garden is the perfect place to relax and enjoy the breath-taking views over Connemara National Park.

In 1976 Chris Kelleher, himself a mill worker, bought the old mill property.
