Day 4: Thursday August 27th, 2026 – Blarney and Dublin

This morning depart for Dublin and stop along the route to visit Blarney Castle

Attracting visitors from all over the world, Blarney Castle is situated in the village of Blarney, close to Cork city. An ancient stronghold of the McCarthy's, Lords of Muskerry, it is one of Ireland's oldest and most historic castles, and indeed one of the strongest fortresses in Munster

Stop at Blarney Woollen Mills

The presence of the Woollen Mills during the famine shielded Blarney from the worst effects of the famine, due to its employment of local workers. The success story at the mills continued until a disastrous fire in 1869. By August 1871, the mill was once again operational with a labour force of 222. In 1976 Chris Kelleher, himself a mill worker, bought the old mill property. Within a short period of time Chris and his family transformed the mill into what is perhaps the largest quality craft shop in Ireland. Guests can buy Waterford Crystal here also.

In the evening attend the Welcome Party!

Day 7: Sunday, August 30th, 2026 – Birr Castle and Galway

This morning depart from Dublin for the West coast of Ireland

Visit to Birr Castle Gardens

Birr Castle Demesne is an estate of 50 acres of parkland in the Midlands town of Birr. It is home to Birr Castle (not open to public) and its magnificent Formal Gardens, the Historic Science Centre and the Great Telescope built in the 1840's. Ireland's Historic Science Centre in the old stable block features the many pioneering achievements of the Parsons family and of other great Irish scientists in the fields of astronomy, photography, engineering and horticulture. In the grounds of the Estate you will discover the Great Telescope built by the third Earl of Rosse in the 1840's which was the largest in the world for 70 years. The neo-gothic Castle is the private family home of the Parsons family and is not open to the public.

Arrive into Galway during the afternoon

Overnight bed and full Irish breakfast at your Galway hotel

Day 8: Monday, August 31st, 2026 – Burren and Cliffs of Moher

Today enjoy a morning tour of the Burren region with a stop at the Cliffs of Moher and the Atlantic Edge Visitor Centre.

Situated on the Atlantic Ocean and bordering the Burren Area, the Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most spectacular sights. Standing 230 metres above the ground at their highest point and 8km long, the Cliffs boast one of the most amazing views in Ireland. The cliffs reach their highest point just north of O' Brien's Tower.

The Burren is a strange and unique region in Europe. "Burren" means "large stones". In fact its name describes this impressive scenery perfectly well. Often described as lunar, the Burren is a high plateau of porous limestone situated in Northern Clare between Ballyvaughan and Kilfenora. The rocks hide many caves like Ailwee, as well as "Turloughs", an interesting phenomenon which transforms lakes into fields during the summer. You will also discover the testimonies of its rich history thanks to countless castles and monastic ruins.
