Day 2: Wednesday, August 26th, 2026 – Kilkenny

This morning enjoy a walking tour of the medieval city of Kilkenny.

Capital of County Kilkenny, the town of Kilkenny is often referred to as “the Marble City”. It is the most interesting and best preserved of the medieval Irish cities. It owes its immense charm to the various impressive historical monuments. A medieval city of 24,000 people it is characterised by many beautifully restored buildings and winding slipways ~ it is small and compact (best explored on foot), yet full of fascinating historical buildings and contemporary shops, design galleries and restaurants. The ancient city of Kilkenny was named after a 6th century monk St Canice. A native of the area, St Canice built a monastic enclave on the site where today we find the beautifully restored 13th St Canices Cathedral. The town is dominated by 12th century Kilkenny Castle, built by the Normans on their arrival in this part of Ireland.

Day 6: Sunday, August 30th, 2026 – Birr Castle and Galway

This morning depart from Dublin for the West coast of Ireland

Visit to Birr Castle Gardens

Birr Castle Demesne is an estate of 50 acres of parkland in the Midlands town of Birr. It is home to Birr Castle (not open to public) and its magnificent Formal Gardens, the Historic Science Centre and the Great Telescope built in the 1840's. Ireland's Historic Science Centre in the old stable block features the many pioneering achievements of the Parsons family and of other great Irish scientists in the fields of astronomy, photography, engineering and horticulture. In the grounds of the Estate you will discover the Great Telescope built by the third Earl of Rosse in the 1840's which was the largest in the world for 70 years. The neo-gothic Castle is the private family home of the Parsons family and is not open to the public.

Arrive into Galway during the afternoon

Day 7: Monday, August 31st, 2026 – Burren and Cliffs of Moher

Today enjoy a morning tour of the Burren region with a stop at the Cliffs of Moher and the Atlantic Edge Visitor Centre.

Situated on the Atlantic Ocean and bordering the Burren Area, the Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most spectacular sights. Standing 230 metres above the ground at their highest point and 8km long, the Cliffs boast one of the most amazing views in Ireland. The cliffs reach their highest point just north of O' Brien's Tower.

The Burren is a strange and unique region in Europe. "Burren" means "large stones". In fact its name describes this impressive scenery perfectly well. Often described as lunar, the Burren is a high plateau of porous limestone situated in Northern Clare between Ballyvaughan and Kilfenora. The rocks hide many caves like Ailwee, as well as "Turloughs", an interesting phenomenon which transforms lakes into fields during the summer. You will also discover the testimonies of its rich history thanks to countless castles and monastic ruins.
