Day 2: Tuesday, August 25th, 2026 – Connemara & Glen Keen Farm

Depart for Glen Keen Farm

Glen Keen Farm is one of the largest farms in Ireland's agri-tourism offering, over 1,400 acres in size! The farm is stunning with waterfalls and breathtaking balleys of the Carrowniskey River, which forges through the center of the property and is bound by the Sheeffry and Mweelrea mountain ranges on the south side of the property, serving as pillars to the Delphi Valley.

- Enjoy a sheepdog herding experience followed by tea/coffee and homemade scones with a traditional Irish music session.
- Enjoy a traditional turf cutting experience – learn the methods and many uses of turf from culinary to hot whiskeys

Depart the farm and enjoy a scenic drive through Doo Lough Valley to Leenane

Enjoy a boat trip on Killary Fjord

Ireland's only fjord at Killary Harbour in Connemara boasts some of the finest scenery in the West of Ireland with the Connemara mountains to the south and the Mweelrea mountains to the north. Because of its sheltered nature the waters are always calm and so sea-sickness is not an issue. The ship has been designed to maximize comfort and uninterrupted views of spectacular scenery. The marine life activity in the area includes mussel and salmon farms.

Day 4: Thursday, August 27th, 2026 – To Dublin

Today depart Mayo and travel to Ireland's capital, Dublin city with a stop en route

Visit Kilbeggan Distillery

In the heart of Ireland, just over 1 hour from Dublin lies the town of Kilbeggan, home to the world's oldest distillery, established in 1757. It is the quintessential Irish whiskey distillery - whitewashed walls, weathered slate roof, brick chimney stack, creaking timber water wheel, even regular ghost sightings. This is no mere "visitor centre" but a real working distillery run by a team of young enthusiastic craftspeople (and a few wise old heads too), skilled in the traditional ways of making Irish whiskey.
