CLIFFS OF MOHER TRIP FROM DUBLIN

Duration: Full Day

Wheelchair Accessible: No

Mobility Requirements: Fair

Location: Cliffs of Moher, Liscannor, Co. Clare, Ireland

Transport to/from: pick up from Dublin city center location

Est. Transportation Time: 7 hours (roundtrip)

Situated on the Atlantic Ocean and bordering the Burren Area, the Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most spectacular sights. Standing 230 metres above the ground at their highest point and 8km long, the Cliffs boast one of the most amazing views in Ireland. The cliffs reach their highest point just north of O' Brien's Tower. Cornelius O' Brien, a descendant of Brian Boru (he who defeated the Vikings in battle), built a Tower at the cliffs in order to enjoy some tea with his lady friends. The Tower is adjacent to the seastack, Breanan Mór, which stands over 70 metres above the foaming waves and is home to some of the Burren's wildlife.

Inclusions:

- Visit to Cliffs of Moher

TITANIC BELFAST - GIANT'S CAUSEWAY TRIP FROM DUBLIN

Experience Duration: Full Day

Wheelchair accessible: No

Level of fitness required: Low

Location: Ballymena, NI Ireland

Transport to/from: pick up from Dublin city center location

Est. Transportation Time: 8 hours (roundtrip)

Giant's Causeway was formed more than 60 million years ago when red-hot lava erupted onto the surface of the earth. It was quickly cooled by the sea, which crystallized it and formed it into the 40,000 basalt polygonal columns, which today form the Giants Causeway.

Located in the heart of Belfast, the Titanic Belfast recreates the story of the world's most famous ship in an iconic, six floor building right beside the historic site of the original ship's construction. Opened in April 2012 to coincide with the centenary of its launch, the self-guided journey begins on entering the building's giant atrium, where the visitor is surrounded by the four 'ship's hull' shaped wings which house the Titanic Experience.

Inclusions:

- Visit to Giant's Causeway
- Stop at Dunluce Castle
- Visit to Titanic Belfast
- Return coach transfer
- English speaking guide
